

This annual award recognises and celebrates demonstrated records, information and archives management service excellence by eligible current, new or past SA practitioners, teams/groups, students, researchers, historians, volunteers and other individuals in honour of the late Bernadette Bean.

The award provides a wonderful opportunity to acknowledge and showcase the best and brightest professionals in the industry; fund small initiatives; and help shine a light on records, information, archive, knowledge, history, cultural heritage, museum and library collections, management practices and solutions which contribute to local, regional or State memory or culture.

The Records and Information Management Practitioners Alliance – Global (RIMPA Global) endorses and supports this award.

Visit the award website at <https://bbmaward.com> to learn more about Bernadette; and the award purpose and prize format, eligibility criteria, timelines, past winners, contacts and nomination form.

Share a link to this poster and the award website with eligible SA nominees in your team/group, organisation/association or networks via:

- email and social media sites such as LinkedIn, Facebook and Twitter
- your organisation's or association's intranet or internet website
- e-newsletters, collaboration tools and other communication methods.

Nominations are open early April to 8 July each year.
